At the time of adoption of this charter, the Company is not subject to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Act”), and its common stock is not listed on an national securities exchange (an “Exchange”). The Company intends to seek such listing. Until such time as the Company's common stock is listed on an Exchange, the provisions of this charter will be in compliance with the requirements applicable to audit committees promulgated by the New York Stock Exchange (the “NYSE”). The filing and other obligations and responsibilities of the audit committee under the Act and the rules and regulations promulgated thereunder shall become operative at such time as the Company shall be subject thereto.

The Committee shall consist of three Members, each of which shall be a member of the Board. No director may serve as a Member if such director serves on the audit committee of more than three public companies, unless the Board determines that such simultaneous service would not impair the ability of such director to effectively serve on the Committee. Any such determination must be disclosed in the Company's annual proxy statement, if applicable.

The following membership requirements shall also apply:

(a) Each Member must meet the criteria for independence set forth in Rule 10A-3(b)(1) promulgated under the Act, subject to the exemptions provided in Rule 10A-3(c) under the Act;

(b) Each Member must be “independent” as defined in Section 303A.02 of the rules of the NYSE;

(d) At least one Member must, through appropriate education and/or experience, satisfy the definition of “audit committee financial expert” as defined by rules and regulations under the Act.

If a current Member ceases to be independent under the requirements of subparagraphs (a) and (b) above for reasons outside the Member’s reasonable control, the affected Member may remain on the Committee until the earlier of the Company’s next annual stockholders meeting or one year from the occurrence of the event that caused the failure to comply with those requirements; provided, however, that when relying on the exception set forth in this sentence the Committee shall cause the Company, if listed on the Exchange, to provide notice to the Exchange immediately upon learning of the event or circumstance that caused the non-compliance.

3. Structure and Meetings

The chairperson (other than a chairperson pro tem) shall ensure that the agenda for each meeting is distributed to each Member in advance of the applicable meeting.

The Committee may establish its own schedule, provided that it shall provide such schedule to the Board in advance. The chairperson of the Committee or a majority of the Members may call special meetings of the Committee upon notice as is required for special meetings of the Board in accordance with the Company’s bylaws. A majority of the appointed Members, but not less than two Members, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.
